Regenerative Med Spa + HALO TRIBRID

Objetivo de la landing

Convertir tráfico de pauta, email y redes en consultas para HALO TRIBRID, posicionando a Regenerative Med Spa como uno de los primeros spas médicos en Orlando en traer esta tecnología avanzada de renovación de piel.

La página debe vender primero el problema del paciente: manchas, daño solar, textura, poros, arrugas, cicatrices de acné, tono desigual y piel opaca. Después presenta HALO TRIBRID como la tecnología que permite tratar esas preocupaciones de una forma más completa.

Subheadline

Advanced skin renewal is now available in Orlando.

Body copy

Regenerative Med Spa introduces HALO TRIBRID, an advanced Sciton laser resurfacing technology designed to help improve the appearance of sun damage, uneven tone, fine lines, visible pores, acne scars, rough texture and dull-looking skin.

This is not a one-size-fits-all treatment. Your skin is evaluated first, then your provider customizes the treatment based on your concerns, goals and skin needs.

Symptoms / concerns

Diseño sugerido

Cards o grid visual con íconos simples o close-ups de piel.
Ideal en 2 filas de 4 cards en desktop y carrusel en mobile.

Headline

What is your skin trying to show you?

Body copy

In Florida, sun exposure, aging, acne history and daily lifestyle can leave visible changes on the skin. These concerns may appear gradually, but they can change how your skin looks in natural light, in photos and under makeup.

You may notice:

Cards

Dark spots
Sun damage
Uneven tone
Fine lines
Wrinkles
Rough texture
Visible pores
Acne scars
Dull skin
Post-acne marks

Closing copy

These concerns do not always live in the same layer of the skin. That is why advanced laser resurfacing can be a more complete option than treating every concern separately.

Headline

Regenerative Med Spa brings next-generation skin renewal to Orlando

Body copy

At Regenerative Med Spa, skin renewal starts with a personalized evaluation, not a generic treatment plan.

HALO TRIBRID is part of our commitment to bringing advanced aesthetic technology to Lake Nona and offering patients a more precise way to improve visible skin quality.

This technology allows our providers to address different concerns in one customized laser resurfacing treatment, including texture, pigment, pores, acne scars, fine lines and overall skin radiance.

How HALO TRIBRID works

Diseño sugerido

Tres cards horizontales o acordeón.

Cada card debe tener un wavelength, una frase corta y una explicación simple.

Headline

Three wavelengths. One customized treatment.

Body copy

HALO TRIBRID uses three independently controlled wavelengths in one treatment. This allows your provider to target different layers of concern instead of treating all skin issues the same way.

Card 1

2940 nm

Texture resurfacing

Helps improve the appearance of rough texture, surface irregularities and skin that no longer feels as smooth as it used to.

Card 2

1927 nm

Pigment and tone

Helps target visible discoloration, sun damage, dullness and uneven tone for brighter-looking skin.

Card 3

1470 nm

Deeper skin renewal

Supports deeper dermal renewal and overall skin quality, helping address concerns that are not only surface-level.

Closing line

The goal is skin that looks smoother, brighter and more renewed.

No hacerlo demasiado técnico.

Headline

Not just the face

Body copy

Depending on your professional evaluation, HALO TRIBRID may be customized for different areas of the face and body.

This matters because sun damage, texture and visible aging often appear on areas that receive daily exposure, including the neck, chest and hands.

Texto en formato editorial corto.

Headline

Your skin needs a plan, not a guess

Body copy

Not every dark spot, acne scar, wrinkle or texture concern should be treated the same way.

Your consultation allows our team to evaluate your skin type, treatment history, pigmentation, sensitivity, goals and areas of concern before recommending a plan.

At Regenerative Med Spa, the goal is to determine candidacy, explain what to expect and customize the treatment to your skin.
